On behalf of President Scott Camps and the AMEM Board of Directors, I am pleased to present this year's AMEM Fall Planning and Training Conference registration and information packet. We hope you will join Minnesota's emergency management community at Breezy Point Resort, Breezy Point, Minnesota, September 19-22, 2010, as we gather to celebrate our history and take advantage of the many opportunities presented by our fall conference.

Celebrating the 50th Anniversary of our Fall Training Conference this year, the theme is: "Leading into the Future....Guided by our Past"

Highlights include:

Homeland Security updates from the state Department of Public Safety and the Division of Homeland Security and Emergency Management, and the state Departments of Health and Military Affairs.

New this year: General Sessions on "Emergency Management – Past, Present, and Future" (to include the ROCDOGS, our original Emergency Managers, "Best Practices", "The Aging of the Work Force - The Economy as the Next Disaster", and the second in a "Leadership Series" with Major General Larry Shellito as our featured speaker.

Three state course offerings: "New Director's Workshop", "Leadership and Influence - PDS 240", and "Emergency Management Planning Capstone Workshop - PDS 230-235".

This year's conference registration will be a web-based process on the AMEM website. Please see the attached sheet for Registration Instructions.

The YELLOW sheet is to make lodging and meal reservations at Breezy Point and it should be sent directly to Breezy Point, or you could contact a motel in the area for your lodging if you choose

We are looking forward to seeing you at Breezy Point!

Terry Stoltzman
